610–26 128Misc227, 218NYS375.

611–27½–New. Approval of contractor's estimates does not estop the county to deny the contractor's right to additional payment where the contract provides that acceptance of work or part payment shall not operate as waiver of contract or reserved powers. 13F(2d)758.

611–27⅓–New. A highway contractor could not acquiesce in the direction of a state's engineer, and, after performing the work with seeming willingness, recover therefor as extra, on the ground that the engineer's directions were erroneous, protest being a condition precedent to recovery. 133Misc131, 231NYS 345.

611–27¼–New. Where a contractor after completing an excavation on a line staked out by an engineer was directed by the engineer to go back and excavate further into the rock ledge, the contractor had the election either to refuse to proceed and recover on quantum meruit for work already done, or to continue under protest and recover the value of the extra work on a quantum meruit. 133Misc131, 231NYS345.

611–28 [a] Contractor is not responsible to subcontractor for delay caused by delay of engineer in setting grade stakes. 148Wash214, 268P876.

611–30 [a] Materialman's right to recover cannot be defeated by cancellation without his knowledge of contract to furnish material between original contractor and person contracting to furnish material. 162La836, 111S182. [b] Persons furnishing material may resort to unexpended funds in possession of public authorities. 162La836, 111S182.

611–31½–New. Amount due to subcontractor from contractor is determined by his contract, not contractor's contract with county. 70CalA326, 233P74.

611–31⅓–New. A judgment allowing the subcontractor the difference between the agreed price of hauling and spreading the quantity of gravel which he could have hauled and spread before quitting work if material had been furnished as agreed and the cost of doing so is proper. 52SD559, 219NW244; 68 Utah486, 251P16.

611–31¼–New. Consent of a road improvement district subletting a portion of work does not render it liable to the subcontractor, on ordinary cessation of work, for profits latter might have made by performance of subcontract. 171Ark 585, 286SW878, 48ALR456.

611–31⅕–New. Materialman under contractor's bond has an equitable lien on retained moneys and is entitled to payment therefrom on the contractor's default. 103WVa676, 138SE324.

611–31⅙–New. Subcontractor must file a claim with the county auditor. 205 Iowa104, 215NW611.

611–31⅐–New. The liability of the principal contractor to a subcontractor generally determines the right of the subcontractor's laborer to recover from the fund due the principal contractor. 132 Misc95, 228NYS289.

611–31⅛–New. Where a subcontractor completed work on a highway pursuant to a contract providing for measurement by yardage by the engineer, he is entitled to recover on showing the amount of work done by force account on the engineer's failure to measure yardage. 152Miss32, 118S370.

611–31⅕–New. A subcontractor is bound to take notice of the contractor's superior rights under the principal contract incorporated in the subcontract by reference. 148Wash214, 268P876.

611–31⅒–New. A provision of a highway contract requiring changes in plans to be by written order signed by the engineer to entitle a contractor to extra compensation is not available to a subcontractor against a contractor. 39 Wyo 84, 270P167.

611–31⅑–New. A subcontractor who failed to perform the subcontract cannot recover on quantum meruit. 148 Wash214, 268P876.

611–31⅓–New. A highway subcontractor continuing work after changes in the route and accepting compensation for the work and delay cannot recover from the principal contractor for loss of anticipated profits resulting from the changes. 39Wyo 84, 270P167.

Under some statutes, where a street is constructed under arrangement between the city and the state, the portion of the cost to be furnished by the city may be paid by it in full from its general funds or may be imposed in full upon property owners or may be apportioned one third against the city and two thirds against property owners. 213Ky90, 280SW486.

742–47⅓–New. It has been held that ordinary taxation, not special assessments, must be resorted to meet charges of construction and maintenance of public roads. 161La803, 109S496.

742–47¼–New. Under some statutes the power and duty of the board of county commissioners to pay the cost of a paved road chargeable to adjacent landowners is optional and discretionary, and not subject to judicial control so long as it fairly appears that the road funds on hand are required to maintain the state road system and to meet expenditures and claims for other road projects. 127 Kan48, 272P176.

518-31½-New. Where a departmental lease provides the manner in which it may be released, such method must be followed by the lessee, and an attempted release in any other manner will be ineffective and will not relieve the lessee from liability for the rents and royalties provided for. 112 Okl 94, 240P81.

518-31½-New. Doctrine of estoppel respecting payment of royalty will not operate against a restricted full-blooded Indian. 15F(2d)565.

518-31¼-New. An occupant of restricted Quapaw Indian land holding as sublessee under a mining lease, void because executed in violation of the laws of the United States regulating the leasing of such land for mining purposes, can acquire no rights by reason of the unlawful relationship thus existing based on estoppel of the sublessee to deny the title of the original lessee or of the original lessee to deny his title. 120 Okl 98, 250P911.

518-31½-New. Superintendent of the Five Civilized Tribes has no power to lease restricted lands of Indian heirs and allottees but has only power to approve leases executed by them. 15F(2d) 565.

518-31½-New. Superintendent is without power to continue in force lease which has expired. 15F(2d)565.

518-31¼-New. Secretary of interior is without power to determine whether terms of lease have been complied with. 15F(2d)565.

518-31½-New. A lease executed by a mixed-blood Creek Indian, after enactment of an act providing that lands of mixed-blood Indians should be free from restrictions, could not be treated as an extension of a prior lease. 28F(2d)590.

518-31½-New. A white man is entitled to protection under state laws against trespass on lands leased from an Indian allottee. 129 Or620, 278P572.

520-72½-New. Where the guardian of full-blood Creek Indians' minor heirs born after March 4, 1906 sells both homestead and surplus portion of their mother's allotment inherited by them and the sale is approved by the county court and the lands are conveyed in one deed for a lump sum consideration without reference to any portion of the lands being the homestead allotment, the deed, although void as to the homestead portion, will be sustained as to the surplus portion. 117 Okl 288, 246P388.

520-72½-New. A mortgage on an allotment, a portion of which is restricted, is void as to only the restricted portion. 119 Okl 44, 247P1003.

520-72¼-New. Where deed to one purchasing land from Indian prohibits alienation without consent of secretary of interior, the conveyance without such consent is void as against public policy, 8F(2d)564.

520-72½-New. and the good faith, motives, or considerations of the purported grantee are immaterial. 8F(2d)564.

520-72½-New. Where restricted land of a mentally incompetent Indian is sold through departmental proceedings in conformity with regulations in force at the time, and under authority of an order of the secretary of the interior removing restrictions and providing that it shall be effective only and simultaneously with the sale, the deed when delivered by the department to the purchaser is merely voidable and not void, in the absence of fraud inducing its execution. 123 Okl 199, 252P829.

520-72¼-New. The infirmity of such deed is cured by the act of congress of August 24, 1922, validating all conveyances of allotted lands theretofore approved by the secretary of the interior. 123 Okl 199, 252P829.

520-72½-New. The secretary of the interior is without authority to provide in rules of department other grounds of forfeiture of rights of purchasers of unallotted lands in Choctaw, and Chickasaw Nations than are expressly provided for by statute. 134 Okl 274, 275P 1050.

INDUSTRIAL CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

961-9 229Ky432, 17SW(2d)432(1st case).

962-17½-New. Members of a cotton association, organized under statute and in accordance with an agreement authorizing organization on a certain date, failing to withdraw before that date, were in no position to complain of irregularities in organization a few days before the date specified in the agreement. TexCivA 16SW(2d)413.

962-17½-New. It was immaterial that all the members of the committee to organize the association were not present at the time it was determined to incorporate, where there was more than a quorum present, and no evidence that any of the absentees dissented or objected to what was done. TexCivA 16 SW(2d)413.

962-26 98CalA230, 276P636. [a] Attempted amendment adopted by voting board and majority of members, and not two thirds as required, has been held ineffective. 98CalA230, 276P636.

963-42½-New. Authorizing establishment of a coöperative cotton gin is in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment, as a denial of equal protection to those operating gins for which adjudication of necessity is required. 278US515, 49 SCt235, 73Led483.

963-54½-New. Judgment of an association in classifying and selling cotton is conclusive, except in cases of fraud or gross mistake amounting to fraud. 179Ark338, 16SW(2d)177.

963-54½-New. An agreement of arbitration and award made thereunder between a tobacco growers' coöperative association and a warehousing corporation has been held legal and binding on all the parties. 229Ky696, 17SW(2d) 1002.

963-54¼-New. Where members of an association borrowed money from the bank for use in making advances and in purchasing cotton from their tenants, and transferred negotiable warehouse receipts to the bank as the cotton was purchased and stored, the cotton so purchased and held was not within the marketing contract, so as to authorize suit for specific performance by the association. TexCivA 16SW(2d)413.

963–54½–New. A provision of an association for distribution of any surplus in a fund for credits and commercial purposes did not preclude the use of the fund as provided in the contract as long as the use was necessary. 229Ky 696, 17SW(2d)1002.

963–54¼–New. Deduction for credits and commercial purposes may be used for any costs of operation which may be classified under the head of "credits" or "commercial purposes." 229Ky696, 17SW(2d)1002.

963–54½–New. Deduction for credits and commercial purposes may be used to settle an indebtedness arising out of violation of contract with warehousing corporations. 229Ky696, 17SW(2d) 1002.

963–54½–New. To hold that deductions by an association for credits and commercial purposes were a trust fund and, when invested in bonds of warehousing corporations, remained a trust fund, which could not be used for payment of obligations of the association not arising directly in connection with the fund, is too narrow a construction of the contract. 229Ky696, 17SW(2d) 1002.

963–54½–New. Charges against subsidiaries for funds may constitute valid obligations of subsidiaries, which association cannot cancel. 227Ky297, 11SW (2d)119.

963–57 [a] (3) One soliciting members or who is director is not authorized to release party from marketing agreement. 91CalA654, 267P572. (4) Authority of agent to defeat purpose of legislation as respects marketing agreement must be expressly conferred by association. 91CalA654, 267P572.

963–57½–New. Whether inactive tobacco growers' coöperative marketing association should be held intact, in readiness awaiting future developments, has been held a question for the directors' sound discretion. 227Ky297, 11SW(2d) 119.

964–65½–New. If members of a coöperative marketing association are entitled to withdraw from the association, they may set up such withdrawal as a defense to any action brought by the association to enforce its contract rights. 98CalA230, 276P636.

964–72 227Ky297, 11SW(2d)119. [c] Jurisdiction of equity of action for accounting. 230AppDiv571, 245NYS432.

964–78 2LaA620. [a] Action to enforce agreement to deliver produce to association.–126Kan694, 271P284 (procedure).

964–79 [a] Necessity for assessment of stockholders is sufficiently shown where it appears that corporation had no assets from which to pay existing claims against it. 177Minn211, 225NW22(2d case).

965–83½–New. Where an association by mistake made excess advances to a member, under a contract providing for advances, it may recover such excess from the member. 179Ark338, 16SW (2d)177.

965–83½–New. Evidence has been held sufficient to support findings in plaintiff's favor in an action by a coöperative milk producers' association against a member thereof for breach of agreement to deliver milk to the association. 97CalA650, 275P1001.

965–83¼–New. If an association made a demand on a member that he install expensive apparatus for cooling milk, the member might be relieved of obligation to deliver the milk. 199Wis379, 225NW209.

965–83½–New. Although members of an association mortgaged cotton, that would be no defense in an action by the association for breach of contract. Tex CivA 16SW(2d)413.

965–83¼–New. Provision of a contract between an association and a member that the membership should cease in case of failure of the member to comply with the terms of the sale agreement did not prevent the association from recovering liquidated damages under the agreement, for failure of the member to deliver milk provided by contract. 97 CalA650, 275P1001.

965–83 1/17–New. A statute requiring the filing of a contract of a coöperative association with its members in the office of the register of deeds, to operate as notice, must be substantially complied with. 199Wis379, 225NW209.

965–83⅓–New. Marketing agreements are entitled to extraordinary protection. 91CalA654, 267P572.

965–83 1/10–New. Evidence was held insufficient to show the agency of a director to relieve a member of an agreement by anticipatory breach. 91CalA 654, 267P572.

965–83 1/10–New. A contract between society and a member may be specifically enforced, and injunctive relief given. 91CalA103, 267P172.

965–83 1/11–New. A statute, authorizing liquidated damages in contracts between society and members and providing for specific performance, is not unconstitutional. 91CalA103, 267P172.

965–83 1/12–New. Contract for sale of products to association partakes of trust or fiduciary character. 230App Div571, 245NYS432.

970–91 35 OhA261, 172NE418.

965–98½–New. A member of an association, in an action by the association to restrain defendant from inducing breach of members' contracts and to restrain defendant from accepting milk from members, was entitled to be made a party defendant, and to assert the defense that association had prevented his performance of contract. 199Wis 379, 225NW209.

966–1 144 Okl 166, 289P734.

970–1½–New. Person holding policy and premium book cannot enforce payment where he does not come within class named in facility of payment clause. 35 OhA261, 172NE418.

970–1⅓–New. That person claiming to be beneficiary has possession of policy and has paid premiums does not entitle him to recover on policy. 35 OhA261, 172NE418.

967–19 [a] In Georgia statutes construed not to subject industrial insurance agents to occupational tax. 162 Ga208, 132SE764.

967–29½–New. Provisions of the master policy release insurer from liability for death or disability of a former employee after termination of active employment and the discontinuance of the insurance, 145Miss266, 110S660.

967–29⅓–New. but do not affect the liability of insurer for total and permanent disability occurring while insured is actively employed and the policy contract is in full force and effect. 145Miss266, 110S660.

967–29¼–New. Betterment of employee's condition is a consideration to support the beneficiary's action. 141 SC303, 139SE619, 55ALR1237.

967–29½–New. Surrender of a policy and substitution of a new plan has been held not to entitle the original beneficiary as such under the new plan. 141 SC303, 139SE619, 55ALR1237.

967–29⅙–New. Employer's failure to notify the beneficiary of surrender of the policy has been held not to create liability under the old on the theory that the employee might have paid the premiums himself. 141SC303, 139SE 619, 55ALR1237.

967–29½–New. Where, by its terms, a new policy does not replace the old, employee beneficiary under the latter cannot recover on such theory. 141SC303, 139SE619, 55ALR1237.

967–29⅓–New. The contract terminates when the employee leaves service. MoA 297SW87.
